

Kent Strut Privacy Policy

The Kent Strut are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. Our Strut Coordinator Officer has overall responsibility for data protection compliance in our club. Contact details are set out at the end of this privacy notice.

This Notice explains when and why we collect personal information about people who join the club by whatever means, how we use it, the conditions under which we may disclose it to others and your rights in relation to your personal data. We may change this notice from time to time so please check the website at www.laakentstrut.co.uk.

By being a member of the club, you're agreeing to be bound by this notice.

How do we collect information about you?

We obtain information about you when you apply to become a member of the club or become a member of the Light Aircraft Association.

What type of information is collected about you?

The personal information we collect might include your name, address, email address, telephone number, flying and aircraft details. The legal bases for the processing of your personal data is to enable the club to fulfil our contractual obligations and provide membership services.

How is your information used?

We may use your information to:

- process your membership;
- to carry out our obligations arising from your membership;
- seek your views or comments on matters relating to the club and sport flying
- notify you of changes to our services;
- send you information that may be of interest to you. This may include information about our events and other club related matters, also information from the LAA that may be of interest.

How long do we retain your information?

We will hold your personal information on our systems for as long as is necessary to carry out our obligations in relation to your membership, or as long as is set out in any relevant agreement between us. Where an individual person's club membership lapses your information will be securely kept for a period of 18 months, after which your information will be deleted.

Who has access to your information?

We will not sell or rent your information to third parties. We will not share your information with third parties for marketing purposes. Please be reassured that we will not release your information to third parties beyond the club unless we are required to do so by law, for example, by a court order or for the purposes of prevention of fraud or other crime.

How you can access and update your information?

The accuracy of your information is important to us. You can check the information and update the information we hold about you, by email to our Coordinator

What are your rights?

(i) the right to access; You have the right to confirmation as to whether or not we process your personal data and, where we do, access to the personal data, together with certain additional information. That additional information includes details of the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned and the recipients of the personal data. Providing the rights and freedoms of others are not affected, we will supply to you a copy of your personal data. The first copy will be provided free of charge, but additional copies may be subject to a reasonable fee.

(ii) the right to rectification; You have the right to have any inaccurate personal data about you rectified and, taking into account the purposes of the processing, to have any incomplete personal data about you completed.

(iii) the right to erasure; In some circumstances you have the right to the erasure of your personal data without undue delay. Those circumstances include: the personal data being no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which the data was collected or otherwise processed, you are no longer a club member and wish the data not to be held for our standard 18 months. Please note a request for data erasure for a current member would require that member to forfeit membership. The data is required for the club to fulfill its obligations.

(iv) the right to object to data processing; You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data for direct electronic communications purposes. If you make such an objection, we will cease to process your personal data for this purpose.

(v) the right to data portability; To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal data is that the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are party and such processing is carried out by automated means, you have the right to receive your personal data from us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. However, this right does not apply where it would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

(vi) the right to complain to a supervisory authority; If you consider that our processing of your personal information infringes data protection laws, you have a legal right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office. <https://ico.org.uk>

(vii) the right to withdraw consent. To the extent that the legal basis for our processing of your personal information is consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. Withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of processing before the withdrawal. You may exercise any of your rights in relation to your personal data by written notice to coordinator@laakentstrut.org.uk
