BBQ Blessed with beautiful blue skies and Ice Cream

Ripple BBQ

Several strut aircraft flew in to Steve Solley's short airstrip. I walked the length of the grass runway with my running watch and sure enough it recorded 350 metres from the gravel at the bottom of the lane right up to the pointy end on the west side. There were plenty of vintage cars to admire as well as looking at other members aircraft and music from a local group.

Editors New email

Please note my tesco.net emails have been discontinued. Would have been nice to have been informed, don't know if it was tesco or talktalk who took over the broadband package from tesco, so if you have nigel.read@tesco.net or skywritings@tesco.net in your contacts, delete them as they will go nowhere. I'm using nread52@yahoo.co.uk
